This is our trello board at the completion of the project:

Green labels represent tasks estimated to be small, yellow represents medium, and orange represents large tasks.